Polynesian Dances Exhibited at Nottoway Nights

The Hawaiian-style performance group Hoaloha will perform traditional luau songs and dances at Nottoway Park in Vienna on Thursday, August 10 at 7:30 p.m. The warm "Aloha Spirit" of Pacific Basin culture is embodied by fun-loving Hoaloha, which means "friends" in Hawaiian. Well-known for their energetic performances around the D.C. Metro area, Hoaloha's talented musicians and colorfully costumed dancers encourage audience participation as they demonstrate authentic dances found throughout the Hawaiian Islands and the South Pacific.

Vienna's Nottoway Park is hosting the seventh season of Nottoway Nights, a free, weekly concert series featuring a range of musical acts from across the country and around the world. The variety and quality of the acts are a reflection of Fairfax County's community spirit and diversity. Don't miss this delightful, outdoor, summer experience.

Nottoway Park is located at 9601 Courthouse Road, Vienna.

Concerts are held outdoors. Bring a picnic dinner, blankets and lawn chairs, and relax and enjoy the show. If there is a threat of bad weather, call (703) 324-SHOW (7469) after 6 p.m. for cancellation updates.

Nottoway Nights is made possible through the efforts of the Fairfax County Park Authority, the Providence District Supervisor's office, the Friends of Nottoway Park and the generous support of the local business community.

For more information about any of the summer series contact the Public Information Office at (703) 324-8662 or visit us online at <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/performances/>.
